

93 WORDS, 30 SECONDS

HOW NOT TO SAVE YOUR HOME

While foreclosure rescue scams are increasing, spotting one is easier than you might imagine. Watch out for people promising to save your home in exchange for your deed or a fee up front and avoid people who ask for fees to provide you housing counseling. There is never a charge for information from your lender or a HUD-approved housing counselor. That's why the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency wants to remind you that help is free. For more information, visit Help-With-My-Bank--dot--gov.