Effectively measuring and managing risk is crucial to the success of financial institutions. While managers deal with risk-related issues day-to-day, directors should develop and maintain a level of knowledge that best enables them to fulfill their oversight responsibilities. This one-day workshop is designed to enhance your understanding of the OCC's approach to risk-based supervision and familiarity with the major risks facing the financial industry. Learn to recognize the common ways to identify, measure, monitor, and control risk. Be ready to respond to the rapidly changing financial services industry and to fulfill your responsibilities with confidence by registering to attend this one-day workshop for $99 in one of these cities.

*Consecutive sessions with the Compliance Risk or Credit Risk workshops.

2020 OCC COMMUNITY BANK DIRECTOR WORKSHOPS

Risk Governance

Improving Director Effectiveness

- Enhance understanding of the OCC's approach to risk-based supervision.
- Increase familiarity with major risks in the financial industry.
- Recognize common ways to identify, measure, monitor, and control risk.
- Learn the risk-related questions to ask managers, auditors, and regulators.
- Enhance understanding of strategic planning and responsible innovation.

Work with and learn from experienced OCC examiners who lead this one-day workshop, which includes discussions of best practices, lectures, and hands-on exercises designed for directors and senior management of national community banks and federal savings associations. The $99 cost includes workshop materials and lunch.

DON'T DELAY. REGISTER TODAY! The workshop is limited to the first 35 directors and senior managers who register. For complete information and to register, go to www.occ.gov/occworkshops.

After registration is confirmed, call the hotel or book online to reserve your room. Tell the hotel you are attending the OCC Director Workshop. If you encounter difficulties in making reservations, please visit www.occ.gov/occworkshops and select Contact Us for assistance.
